The Vision-Mission-Foundation Statement

Regine Humanics Foundation exists to nurture, foster, enhance, empower, enrich, support, advance, celebrate and promote humanity, the humanism of humanity and the human condition, human oneness and connectedness both in its unity of oneness and its varied array of diversity in abilities and in disabilities in all forms, manners, ways and expressions. And in doing so Regine Humanics Foundation will work to foster and promote the ethos of human existence as to seek and strive to be the noun, the verb and the adjective of human existence, expressed as: "Be and do love for we are one: Life: You Are The Law The Flow The Glow: In Joys In Hurts You Are The Vine-Songs On The Light-Trellis."

Regine Humanics Foundation exists in humanics, which is a new way of thinking, being and existing, in which the human affairs are conducted through Human Enterprise, which is an idea, in which no one owns anything but everyone belongs to the whole as the whole belongs to everyone lawfully and equally and, it neither believes in nor makes money but human utilities, needs, aspirations, creativity, imagination and dreams are served without money, where everyone works and creates for others as others create and work for them, thus, bringing in meaning and purpose to life along with it come natural justice, equality and liberty, that establish a true civilisation. And in one word, this system of human affairs management is called, Humanics and, a society, that runs itself in humanics is called a humanical society.

Regine Humanics Foundation exists to work to present, promote and take to the world and to humanity this vision, this humanicsovicsofia, this dream, this utopia of a humanical society living in humanics as one humanity as the humanion, in one world, on one earth in a dual-system of the earth and moon, in one Sunnara, in one Universe and in such a humanical society, where humanics means society and humanity have achieved true civilisation, that is marked and measured in the existence and achievement of equality and liberty, meaning and purpose, in which exists natural justice, where humanity is at home as single units of a persons, as units of families, as units of communities and societies: in singular humanity is at liberty and equal; in plurality humanity is at liberty and equal and a society is a true civic society, where the rule of law and natural justice mean the same thing.

And in such a society knowledge, learning and seeking is a way of existing so that each soul is an eternal learner to keep on guarding its liberty by constantly keeping on learning so that the soul remains at liberty for without knowledge and learning fear grips the soul and takes its liberty away because a soul without knowledge is scared, afraid and lost and, therefore, it loses its liberty all together. And in seeking, striving and promoting this learning and seeking The Foundation will do everything to support human ingenuity, imagination, creativity, humanity, compassion, love, kindness, care and empathy in the faith that: human life unfolds in a Nine-Step-Realm-Path as this: i: Imagination, ii: Prospectivity, iii: Tentativity, iv: Feasibility, v: Possibility, vi: Onwardineity, vii: Probability, viii: Certainty and ix: Reality; as these are the nine realms of reality through which human endeavours begin and progress towards reality. This is the nine-step, onward realms of becoming: all arising out of imagination, seeking to travel towards becoming part of reality or rather, becoming real. There is none and can not be any reality, that can come to exist unless that reality has existed in imagination and from there followed this nine-step path onto reality.

But humanity's walk to develop itself as one humanion, as a metaphorical spiritual physiology of being one and the same humanity living across the earth, in the Sunnara, on this Universana and working towards and reaching for and becoming ready towards a humanical society, living in humanics, will be a long, long, long walk so that The Foundation, in the meanwhile, will work to promote, through all its activities, works and initiatives, the following:

a: That all citizens of a nation have: a: Guaranteed Universal Income; b: A Guaranteed Home; c: A Guaranteed Education Up to College and Guaranteed Subsidised Route to Degree-Level Education; d: A Guaranteed Job; e: Guaranteed Access to Free for All Healthcare at the Point of Need and f: A Guaranteed Universal-Child-Income-Protection Where Every Child is Guaranteed Equal Financial Support from 0-16; g: Guaranteed Social Care and h: Guaranteed Access to Equitable Pension:Provides a living income. For the Foundation believes these are the strands of reality of a human condition, that will support and prepare humanity towards the humanical future of oneness in a civilisation built in natural justice, where equality and liberty have become a reality for every human soul and each and every human soul has found the means to seek, find, define and create her:his own meaning and purpose in life of being and existing in a civic society, where natural justice and the rule of law mean the same thing that shows: humanity has become such that it now resides, exists, does, creates, loves, gives and becomes as such that resonates the infinite liberty, equality, meaning and purpose or natural justice expressed in the vastness of the one Universe or Universana, the frontierless country for the frontierless humanion.

b: And, therefore, Regine Humanics Foundation will continue publishing The Humanion as an online daily quality newspaper, news-publication as an on going University of Life, Living, Learning and Humanity to advance its works, aims, objectives and vision.

c: In addition to The Humanion, the Foundation will continue to run, organise, promote and manage the annual London Poetry Festival and take other activities to advance its works in all areas as much as its resources might allow it to do. These works, activities, actions and projects of The Foundation will seek to support, promote, foster and nurture the reality as opposed to any other fragmented, fractured, distorted and unreal representations of reality being concocted, enforced, orchestrated, brewed and dictated to a herded humanity by the market profiteers of the most dehumanised arena of the distorteddia, whereby supporting, nurturing and celebrating humanity's innate qualities both its oneness and its myriad of diversity, human compassion, care, love, connectedness and oneness, solidarity, individuality and belonging, friendship and humanionship, family, community, society and all other states of human virtues, such as, respect, hope, faith, acceptance, relatedness and working together, duty, love of learning and seeking and the most fundamental of human states: imagination, ingenuity, empathy, creativity, sense of wonder, love of openness, nature, the otherwhere and the other and the whole and the frontierless Universana and its infinite array of beauty and joy, love and giving.

d: In advancing these The Foundation will be the voice for the 'dispossessed', the marginalised, the left behind, the cut out and abandoned, the friendless, the disempowered, the disabled, the minority, the devastated and the unsupported. And in seeking to advance these causes The Foundation will seek to establish works and services in these areas, such as, working to end all forms of homelessness, end rough sleeping, working to promote social cohesion and bringing together of diverse people, communities of all ages and backgrounds, working with and for the elderly, the frail and the vulnerable people, people with disabilities, particularly, with young people with disabilities.

e: The Foundation will establish a Humanics Spring Festival of Humanity, taking place on Every Sixth of April annually in London and encourage it being established and celebrated all across the UK and the rest of the world to bring together all humanity of all backgrounds to, simply, gather and celebrate humanity and The Foundation will work to bring about a 'national movement' in the UK and across the world, whereby agencies and organisations work together to create a Humanical Youth Rainbow Visionaries, who all work together during their entire youth outside their educational hours, learning and working together around their communities supporting and enabling all people of all disabilities, vulnerabilities and shortfalls, as well as, taking civic actions and activities around their local environment and ecology. The Foundation will seek to work of Universities to establish an Academic Framework for 'accreditation of the body of 'work, seeking, learning, creating and giving', that a young person achieves with the Visionaries working from age 12-29. And, The Foundation will seek to develop, establish and run a Humanics Assembly of Humanity in the United Kingdom, working with all agencies, bodies and institutions to advance liberty, equality, oneness, diversity and civic humanionship between and among all people, led by the youth, with a focus of creating an assembly for advancing gender equality, challenging masochism and misogyny and stereotypes so that this Assembly will represent all forms and manners of human individuals from all backgrounds and identities and the Assembly shall have a ratio of woman and man as 50:50. The Highest Leadership of the Assembly shall be a woman and man as Equi-Leaders and all other structures of this Assembly shall have an equal number of women and men. The idea is to establish this body in the UK, as well as, in England, Northern Ireland, Scotland and Wales and these bodies will work with all layers and strata of governments, including, the parliaments, assemblies and all other such bodies to advance the agenda of gender equality, civic and social cohesion and a celebration of the beautiful oneness and awe-inspiring diversity of humanity. And, these assemblies, hopefully, will spread across the globe and they all, one day, work in unison and concert and bring about the dawn of the Humanion as one unity of humanity on Mother Earth and, with it show humanity and the world that it is time there comes to exist The Universal Assembly of the Humanion to Lead humanity towards the future.

In short, The Foundation exists for no individual's or group of individuals' personal benefits; rather it exists for the benefit and good of society and humanity. It exists for promoting and working for the common good. If, ever, The Foundation comes to cease to exist, all of its existing assets will be given to a similar agency, that exists and works for common good.

The Foundation will be led, run, managed, guided by the people, who subscribe to The Humanicsovicsovision of The Foundation and join its Presidium, to which The Founder is The Founding Member, who will invite others to join The Presidium. The Presidium shall be a valid, functioning and in quorum body with whatever number makes it at any point in time. The Presidium shall be its, only and the highest 'body' but no individual member nor all members combined together of The Presidium own:s The Foundation nor any of its asset but they all singly and plurally belong to The Foundation as The Foundation belongs to them but as and when they leave they leave as they came: with nothing to gain from being at The Foundation. And no one gains any financial payment or remuneration for being part of The Presidium or for the time and human resources they invest in conducting its duties and responsibilities, which they undertake simply because of their humanical way of living and existing.

However, if, they take on other full or part time roles in the works, activities, initiatives, efforts, projects of The Foundation they will receive payment, remuneration for that work so that they are able to support, sustain, live and lead an 'honourable, honest, decent' human life.
