The World: The Earth: The Moon

There is our little but political World on our Mother Earth, who has her little Lamp, her forever Clair de Lune, the little Moon as part of her system and they all are in one Unity, that supports, sustains and nurtures the ecology of life in the little nano-space, The Sunnara, where we the little humanity, part of the vast web of this ecology of life, that is supported, nurtured and sustained by the eternal Solarian King, the Sun and here we must see ourselves as the one and the only Unity of the entire and whole humanity and become the Humanion to exist and live on this Unity of Mother Earth, on the Sunnara in the Milky Way on and in Universana.

There is One Humanity on One Earth in One Sunnara in One Milky Way Galaxy on One Universe and There is the Absolute Opposite of It, Called, Evil: Please, Do Not Seek to Divide Humanity by Applying Pseudo Adjectives Such as Eastern or Western or Southern or Northern and Pointless Things Like That: Humanity is Humanity Regardless of Where It Exists: It Exists as Finite Expression of Infinite Goodness: But When We Divide Ourselves and Set Segments of Ourselves Against Each Other We Feed Nothing But Evil and, in Turn We, Suffer Endless Evils as We are Doing Across the Earth Today.

A United Humanity Must Fight All Evils, That Challenge Humanity All Over the World and Evil Has Always Challenged Humanity Since the Dawn of Our Existence: Divided Humanity is the Weakest Humanity, Which Equates to Nothing But the Most Consolidated, the Most Empowered, the Most

Concentrated and Most Embolden, the Most Unified Evil. Read This O Fellow

The Sunnara

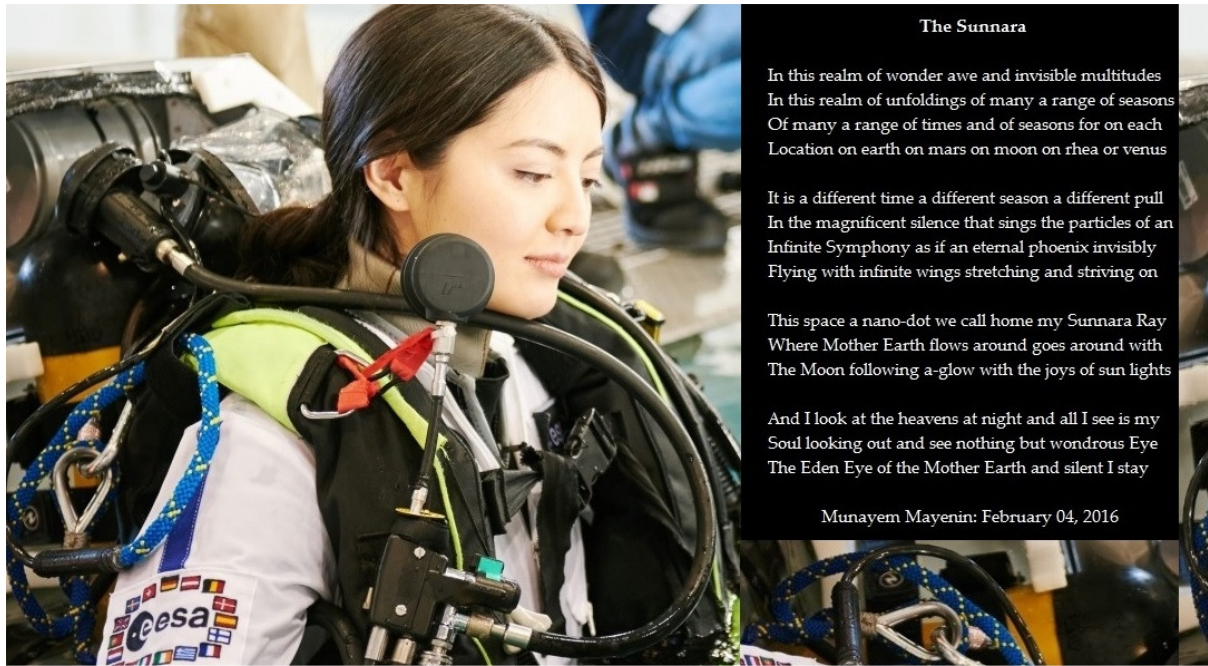

The Sunnara: The Home Region of The Humanion: In this nano-dot of a space inside the Home-Bay or the Milky Way Galaxy is The Sunnara, where The Solarian King, Sun, sustains the ecology of life, that expounds within its perimeter while a Unity of the Mother Earth and Her Little Companion Moon sustains the ecology of life on earth, we humans have been seeking to exist in disarrayed an existence. The world we have made is increasingly made inhabitable for humanity and it is increasingly becoming a dangerous and lawless place and with this we have brought the Mother Earth to choke in and by many a dangerous threat, i.e, climate change, global warming in particular, horrendously toxic air quality, desperate and dangerous state of plastic pollution and utterly unhealthy and dangerous environment for human health; on top of all these, there is an endless list of other socio-political, socio-economical, socio-judicial, socio-philosophical, socio-psychological, sociocultural and socio-spiritual desperations, that are devastating the world and humanity.

Yet, we live in this Universana, the true country for this humanity; except, we are nowhere near able to exist in this infinite country as we should because of how we have set ourselves in marks, dents and cuts of maps, borders and frontiers and these are enforced in our minds and heads so much so that, despite these marks, maps, borders and frontiers being 'unreal', they become the utter, absolute and life-threatening 'strait jacket' by which we get strangled up and as we do gasp out for air we hurt all others as we hurt ourselves and the entire world and human existence are the proof of that endless hurts, heartaches, agony, pain and suffering through endless and ever-going conflicts, wars, famine, dislocations, hunger, poverty, homelessness, absence of education and the depth and level of hatred, phobias and prejudice and raging ignorance. But humanity has infinite potentials for it is an infinity unfolding itself, if, the world will listen to humanics.

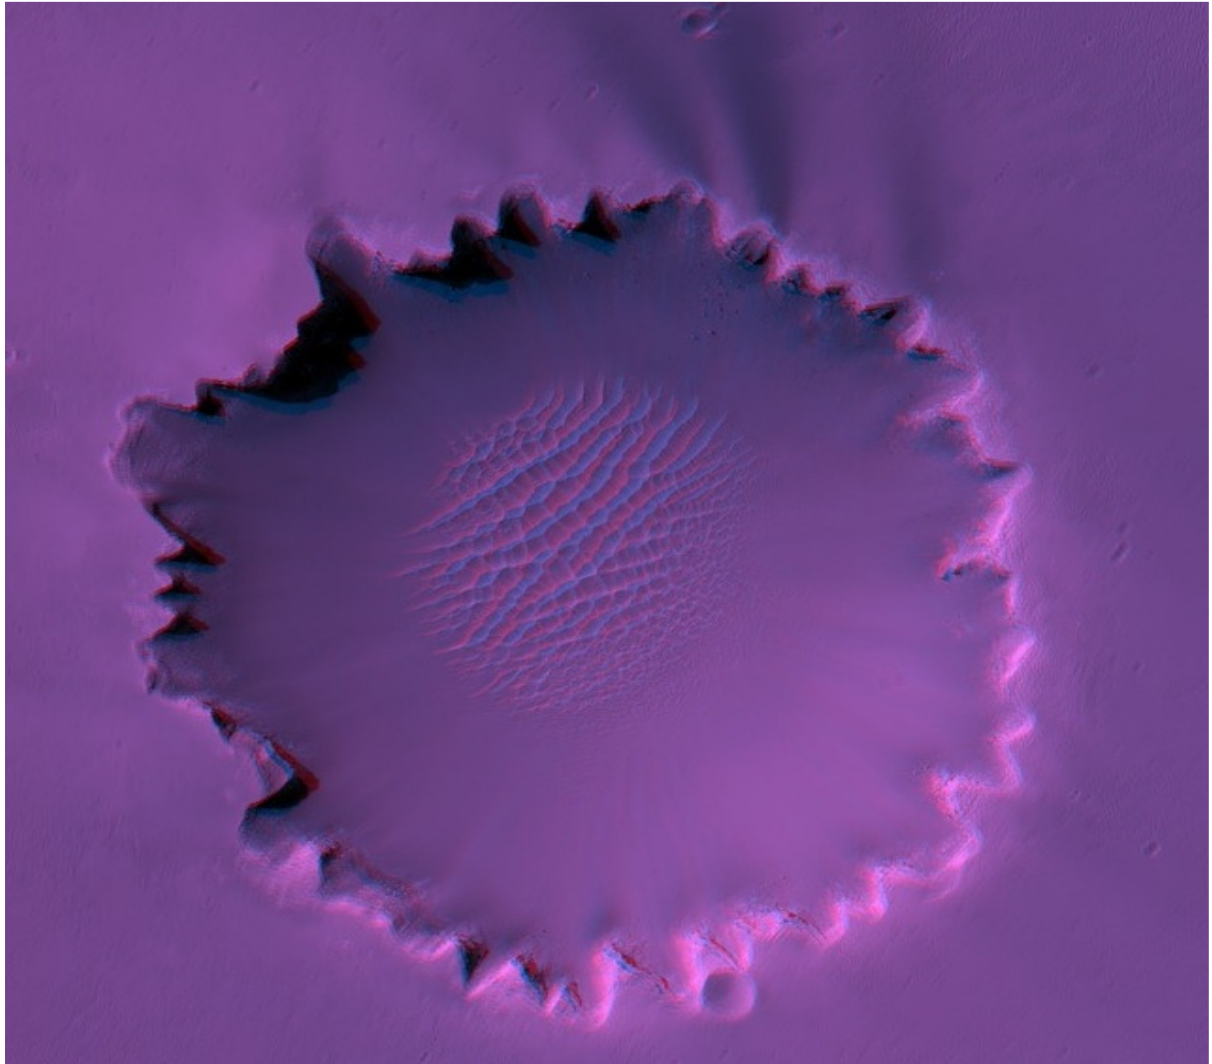

Here is The Sunnara: this is the Home Region of the entire humanity and we need to develop ourselves into a 'one-humanity' and build this home region the best we could. And, we can build this home infinitely better than how we exist in this existing miserable human condition. Here, all the proofs and evidence are present in endless quantity across the earth o suggest that humanity has become 'the best' in ensuring a 'hell on earth' for it to exist in! What kind of a 'thing' can we claim to be, ourselves, this imbecile humanity of us, that does not, even, understand 'self-interest'! Why create a 'hell on earth' for yourselves! But this is what we have done! For the vast, vast, vast multitude of humanity, life has been made into a 'hell on earth' and life still goes on in this hell. Humanics does not accept this 'hell' for infinity does not and can not contain lack: and, if, we are an infinity unfolding itself, than, we can not and do not have any lack so that we can create a home that is infinitely good for all humanity and for all ecology of life. And, with this faith, hope, conviction and humanicsovicsopia, we are Regine Humanics Foundation.

The Viimaaginarium

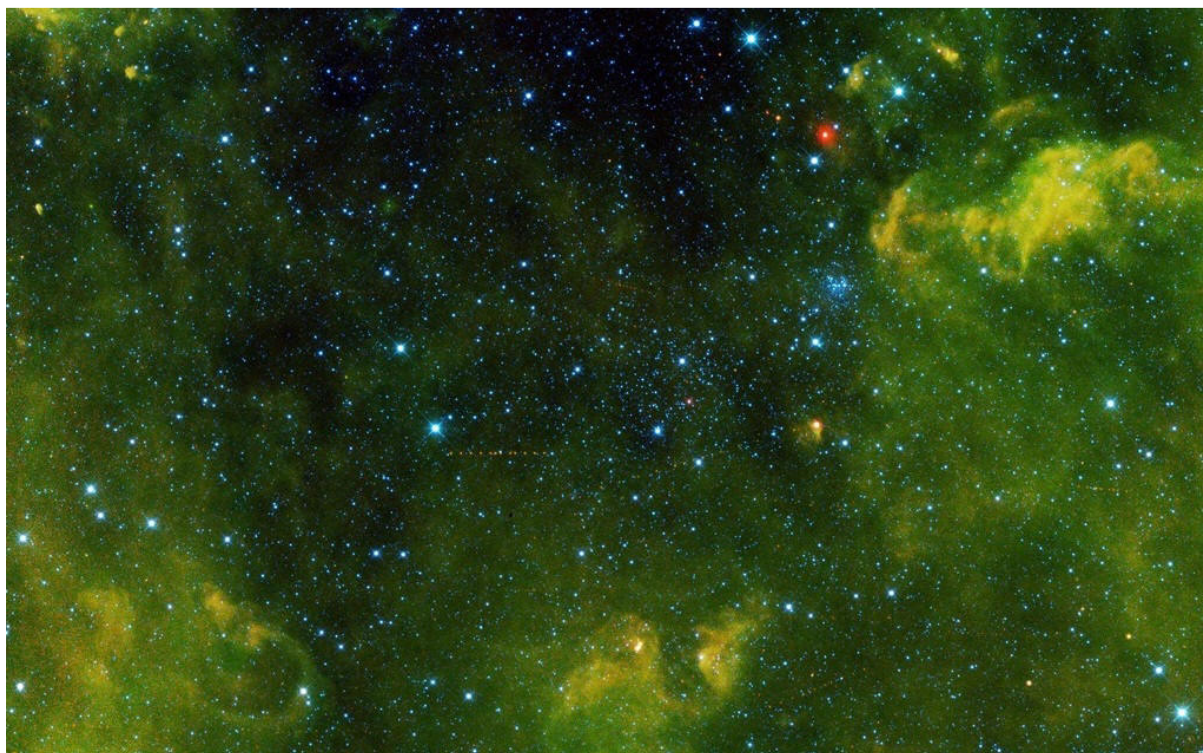

Humanity is Imagination: take all the Universe off existence, the entire temporal existence and what remains is the human soul imagining all into non-existence while it still exists but not as temporal thing but as non-temporal. In that state this human soul is nothing, that is a thing in this temporal world. That soul and imagination is the same thing: this is where the soul's journey begins with imagination and through the nine-step-realm-path into the temporal universe and into the human physiology. Imagination into ingenuity and creativity and add to this the extension of empathy, which can be said as practical imagination and through this this human soul becomes human, does human, exists human. Both imagination and humanity are infinite residing in the human soul, that is an infinity unfolding itself.

Universana

Universana The Home-Country of the Humanion: Imagine, the Country in which the Humanion lives in, is situated on the Universe, which is what it is called by Sciences. For everyday use, for the purpose of humanising, personifying and making it home, we call her Universana: Mother Earth in Mother Universana: The Nursery of Liberty, Equality, Meaning and Purpose, Rule of Law and Natural Justice: All is required for Humanity is to follow suit and become and exist as The Humanion like all things and everything on Universana by the Rule of Law and in Natural Justice, at Liberty, with Equality, by a Meaning and for a Purpose

Wonder For Only In This You Live A Wonder

There are let us call in variables of endlessly flowing number
And in it the Sunnara is a block housing billions more in this March past of all these variables all there rising and falling as
The grid goes on in which we little this and we little that roam

With all this pride making our chests ill and sick making our Boots too large so they ill-fit and hurt our poor little feet and The jackets we are stuck in strangle our wee little bodies and
All we do is buy eat drink pay and eat more so to feel proud

Arrogance fills our bones empty so that there no longer grows
The blood of curiosity instead there is this dread dreadful-stale
Of we know it all and we saw it all and we did all and tell not

Us anything but we shall do wonder why and how this comes To pass that at this time and space the tiny little moon come to Block a mighty sun wonder for only in this you live a wonder

A Wee Little Soul: A Poet Among The Billions of Vast-Little Humanity Across The Globe Spread Across The Ever-Going Boundless Mother Universe Where He Stands As A Nano-Dot And Hears Another Saying: Hello Dear Can You See Me: I Can Hear You, Too: So We Sing And Praise And Go Humble And Wondering: This She And This He And This I And This You And This They And That We And This All Of Us Here And That All Of Us There: We All Are Bound In One Bundle Of Wonders: Now Will You See And Will You Join In The Choral Song Of Being And Doing Nothing But Love: Will You Sing: Will You Sing: Will You Sing The Light: Will You Sing The Dark And Make A Ring Of Us One Humanity?
